BULLETIN.
Chicago, Oct. 19, 1 A. M.—Col. Roosevelt has been sleeping since 11:30 o'clock, his regular hour for going to sleep. Since then he has not been disturbed and no bulletin of his condition has been issued.

BULLETIN.
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Roosevelt's condition was so satisfactory to night that it was announced at 11 o'clock that the usual night bulletin of the physicians would not be issued. Dr. W. B. McCauley paid a brief visit to the colonel and found that he was resting easily. The clinical record showed virtually no change.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—The first vivid impressions of Colonel Roosevelt on the night on which he was shot down in Milwaukee were related to night from the colonel's own lips. Apparently well on the way toward recovery, he was permitted to enjoy a greater degree of freedom, and for the first time he gave an account of happenings of the first hours after the bullet found its mark.

The colonel said that on Monday he expected to leave for Oyster Bay and hoped to be back in the campaign, making speeches again in week after next.

"I feel as lively as a bull dog," said the colonel by the way of preface. He was sitting in a huge leather chair by a window in Mrs. Roosevelt's room, adjoining his own. He was wrapped in a blue bath robe with a streamer rug thrown over his feet to protect him from the autumn breeze which was borne in through the open window.

What seemed to impress Colonel Roosevelt most strongly was not the shooting itself—he seemed to accept that as a thing of the past to be dismissed—but rather his hour on the stage of the Milwaukee Auditorium when he was speaking with a bullet in his side.

But he insisted that to make the speech was only what any other man would have done under the circumstances.

But Little Pain at First.
"It was nothing—nothing," he said. "I felt a little pain, but it was not severe. When I stretched out my arm or reached for my manuscript it made me gasp a bit but that was all."

"It was quite amusing," he went on, "when I reached for the manuscript to see that it had a hole in it from the bullet and there was a hole in my spectacle case too."

The ex-president chuckled as he recalled the surprise he felt at this discovery.

"Amusing, did you say, colonel?" asked one of his hearers.

"Well," he qualified, "it was interesting."

Surprised at Crowd's Action.
Colonel Roosevelt showed no indication that he had felt the fear of death. He said he had no means of knowing as he delivered the speech he had promised to make, whether he was wounded fatally, but accepted as a matter of course that he should go on until he had finished, if his strength held out. But when it was all over, and he had turned away, to go to the hospital but he said he found it difficult to keep his temper when half a dozen men scrambled over the edge of the platform and asked him to shake hands.

"They wanted to shake hands," he said, as though it still surprised him. "Didn't they know that it is impossible for a man who has just been shot to shake hands with genuine cordiality?"

Does Not Mention Schrank.
Of the shooting itself Colonel Roosevelt had little to say. Not once did he mention the name of John Schrank, his assailant. He talked in an unemotional way of being shot, as though he were discussing the case of a man with whom he was not acquainted. He said he felt no bitterness or rancor.

In a dispassionate way, Colonel Roosevelt spoke of his present condition and speculated upon the chance that he would have blood

JOHNSON'S ACTIONS TO BE INVESTIGATED

GOVERNMENT SEEKS TRUTH REGARDING HIS RELATIONS WITH WHITE GIRLS.

Pugilist is Arrested on Warrant Charging Abduction Sworn Out by Mother of Lucile Cameron—Girl Also Held.

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Jack Johnson's troubles, growing out of his alleged relations with Lucile Cameron, a 19 year old white girl, rapidly multiplied today. A few hours after his arrest on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. F. Cameron-Falconet, of Minneapolis, the mother of the girl, charging abduction, Assistant United States Attorney James H. Wilkerson ordered a thorough investigation with the view of government prosecution under the Mann act, prohibiting the illegal transportation of women from one state to another.

Late in the afternoon Miss Cameron was served with a subpoena calling her before the federal grand jury to testify against Johnson.

She also was named in a warrant taken out by her mother charging her with disorderly conduct in order to keep her in the custody of the police, until a complete inquiry be made.

The government is determined to go the limit in investigating Johnson's alleged relations with the Cameron girl and others. Information has come to the department of justice that the negro has associated frequently of late with young white girls and the officials intend making an investigation.

Bert J. Meyer special agent of the department of justice interviewed the girl at the South Clark street police station annex today. She refused to say much about her case, attempting to shield Jack Johnson. It is said, in every answer to questions put to her.

Investigation Will be Thorough.
"We are going the limit in this case," said the district attorney. "There will be no stones left unturned in the prosecution of the negro if we find that he had anything to do with the girl's transportation from another state to Chicago. Furthermore the government will delve deeply into other cases of the like that may be brought to our notice."

Johnson was indicted by a federal grand jury a few months ago on charges of smuggling a diamond necklace, valued at $5,000 into America from London, where he had been with his white wife, who recently killed herself. The trial is expected to be held during the winter session of the federal court.

When arrested today on the charge of abduction, Johnson became furious. His fury was increased when the police refused to permit him to see Lucile Cameron, the girl, or to procure her release on bonds.

Meantime Mrs. Cameron-Falconet visited her 19 year old daughter in her cell and weepingly tried to induce her to return to Minneapolis. Lucile is said to have repulsed her mother at first, but finally burst out with a declaration that she would rejoin Johnson if she could.

Thinks Daughter Insane.
The pugilist, who was released on bond, is scheduled to appear for a preliminary hearing tomorrow morning.

Later Mrs. Cameron-Falconet appeared before Judge John E. Owens in the county court and swore to a formal complaint that her daughter was insane. After the papers had been drawn up and signed, Judge Owens issued a commitment order providing for the arrest and detention of the girl at the Detention hospital pending an investigation and hearing as to her mental condition.

Mrs. Cameron-Falconet informed Judge Owens that she believed her daughter's mind was unbalanced as the result of her association with Johnson.

Miss Cameron was held by the federal authorities tonight in bonds of $25,000 for use as a witness against Johnson.

Miss Cameron Held.
United States District Attorney James H. Wilkerson ordered Miss Cameron taken to the federal building to night, where she will be held under special guard until she appears before the federal grand jury next Monday.

The warrant committing her to the Detention hospital for examination as to her sanity will not be served unless Jack Johnson succeeds in having her released on a writ of habeas corpus.

Armed with warrants charging conspiracy to violate the Mann white slave law, federal officers to night searched the South Side for several women said to have been involved in the bringing of girls to Chicago who later were introduced to Johnson.

WILL START TOUR MONDAY.
Washington, Oct. 18.—Secretary Wilson will leave on a Republican campaigning trip next Monday. He will speak first at Hart, Mich., and will be speaking practically all the rest of the time until election day under a schedule which the campaign managers will map out.

SUFFERS PENALTY.
Pinckneyville, Ill., Oct. 18.—Geo. N. Engle was hanged here this morning for the murder last May of his wife, her unborn babe and of his sister-in-law after a quarrel at the home of his father-in-law.

SPRINGFIELD ORDERS VOTING MACHINE

MACHINE WILL BE SENT TO CAPITAL CITY FOR TRIAL.

Supreme Court Orders—Cook County Election Commission to Send One of Machines Now in Chicago That the Court May See How it Works.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—The supreme court late today issued an order directing the Cook county election commission to bring one of the voting machines used in Chicago to Springfield next Monday. In order that the court may see how the machine works and how long it takes a voter to vote with the machine. The order was issued upon the request of State Representatives Franklin S. Catlin and Morton D. Hull, who are seeking to mandamus the election commission to substitute the regular manner of voting for the machines. It is alleged by the petitioners that the voting machine law is invalid and that the use of the machines will disfranchise thousands of voters because there is not enough time in the voting day to allow all the voters in some precincts to cast their ballots by aid of the machines.

The supreme court today in denying the petition of Elmer N. Schnackenberg for a writ of mandamus to compel the Chicago election commission to print the names of Republican candidates for judges of the municipal court on the Progressive ticket, also holds that a candidate's name can appear in but one place upon the ballot. The court instructs the election commission to follow the law as set forth in the ballot act. The court announced it would hand down a formal opinion later, but its decision sustains the validity of the ballot law and will prohibit the double printing of candidates' names, not only in Chicago but in a number of senatorial districts of the state where the Republican nominees were also chosen as the nominees of the Progressive party.

RACING MUST STOP AT MINERAL SPRINGS

Governor Issues Orders Closing Race Track at Porter—Will Call Out Militia if Necessary.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 18.—State troops will be called out if necessary to stop the running race meeting of the Mineral Springs Jockey club at Porter, Ind., according to a statement of Mark Thistlewaite, secretary to Governor Marshall, tonight, after he had received a telegram from the governor at Grand Island, Neb. The secretary said the militia would be called only as a last resort and that orders have been issued that the racing and alleged gambling must stop.

C. A. Wood, sheriff of Porter county, several days ago was ordered to prevent law violations, by the governor.

The state has had detectives at the track and it is said by officials that they have evidence of actual gambling which will be presented tomorrow in the hearing of the petition to join the race foundation corporation in the Lake-Porcer Circuit court from finishing the meet.

NEWSBOY MAKES HEROIC SACRIFICE

Lad Whose Leg Was Amputated to Save Girl's Life Dies From Operation.

Gary, Ind., Oct. 18.—John Rugh, the newsboy who recently let his crippled leg be amputated so that the skin might be grafted on the body of Miss Ethel Smith, who had been burned in a motorcycle accident, died today of pneumonia, indirectly caused by the anaesthetic he took when his leg was removed. He will be buried at Rock Island, Ill., Monday.

Steps have been taken to perpetuate the story of Rugh's sacrifice. A public meeting has been called by Mayor Knott for next Monday night at which plans will be made for raising money to erect a statue to his memory.

Miss Smith, who has not fully recovered from the effects of the burns and the operation was not informed of Rugh's death until late today.

"I am so sorry," she sobbed. "He gave his life for me, and I could do nothing for him."

SCHANK RESIGNS HIMSELF FTO FATE

Man Who Shot Roosevelt Is Willing to Take What is Handed Him.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 18.—John Schrank, who shot Theodore Roosevelt, has decided upon his will and using his own statements to the police, "is willing to take what is handed him."

This statement was made today by another prisoner. One of the provisions of the last testament, will be that the missile which he fired into Roosevelt, be given to a New York historical society and placed upon exhibition with the gun in the rotunda of the capitol building in Albany.

Schrank told the prisoner, according to a deputy sheriff that he desires the bullet and revolver to be a constant reminder to posterity by exhibiting it and mutely showing the dangers of attempting to violate the third term tradition.

Schrank today asked if Roosevelt was still alive. Being answered in the affirmative he walked back to his cell without commenting.

SECURE ORIGINAL CONTRIBUTORS' LIST FROM SECRETARY

Devore Furnishes Copy of List to Investigating Committee

M'CORMICK RAPS CHAIRMAN HILLES

List of Contributors' is Taken from Private Memorandum Book of the Late Cornelius N. Bliss, Treasurer of 1904 Republican Committee

Washington, Oct. 18.—For the first time since its investigation began, the senate campaign fund committee to day secured a copy of a list of contributors to the much disputed 1904 Republican campaign fund. Elmer Dover, who was secretary of the 1904 Republican committee, put the list in evidence, saying it had been copied from the private memorandum book of the late Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of the committee. He told the investigators he believed that in many instances the list was inaccurate and ambiguous, owing to typographical errors. It totaled $2,280,918 and showed practically all of the contributions to the 1904 fund which have been mentioned in the investigation. The list credited J. Morgan & Co. with two contributions, one of $100,000 and one of $50,000. A contribution of $100,000 appeared on the list from "H. H. R." and "J. D. W."

Mr. Dover told the committee he supposed the "H. H. R." stood for H. H. Rogers of the Standard Oil company and that the "J. D. W." was an error and should have been the initials of either John D. Archbold or John D. Rockefeller.

E. H. Harriman was credited with $150,000 in two contributions and the following entries were on the list:

"G. W. P.", $25,000; "G. W. P.", $100,000; "G. W. P.", $100,000. "There was still another entry G. W. P. committee, $100,000. Two contributions of $25,000 each, credited to C. N. Bliss for P. K. were on the lists.

George J. Gould appeared as giving $100,000.

Contributions aggregating $230,000 appeared as follows:

J. P. Morgan & Co. (additional), $50,000; J. H. Hyde, $25,000; I. N. Seligman, $5,000; C. N. Bliss, $5,000; James Stillman, $10,000; E. H. Harriman, $50,000; H. C. Frick, $50,000; D. O. Mills, $5,000; H. McK. Trombly, $10,000; G. W. Perkins, $10,000; Jacob H. Schiff, $5,000; I. N. Seligman, $5,000.

Uses Strong Language.

Several of these contributors have been mentioned before the committee as to contributing to the so-called Harriman fund of about $240,000. The committee was given a start when Medill McCormick, appearing as the first witness of the day, presented a statement in the course of which he referred to "character assassins and liars like Mr. Hilles, men who, by their falsehood incite weak-minded men to actual assassination."

Several members of the committee rose in violent protest against this language and it was finally expunged from the record. Mr. McCormick testified to contributing about $18,000 to the Roosevelt pre-convention campaign in Illinois. Chauncey Dewey, who was associated with him in the campaign, accounted for the expenditure of the Illinois fund.

The committee tried in vain to get information as to campaign contributions from Col. George Harvey, of Harper's Weekly. He said he knew absolutely nothing of funds collected or of attempts to collect funds or of offers of funds to the Wilson pre-convention campaign.

A grueling cross-examination by Senator Oliver failed to shake this statement regarding the much discussed Harvey-Wilson-Ryan incident.

BELIEVES STATUTE IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Judge McKinley in the superior court today issued a temporary injunction, restraining the officers of the Modern Woodmen of America from submitting to a referendum vote of the members of the society the question of the increased rates in effect since January. The proposed vote was to be taken under the authority created by the statute amending the state insurance act, which was passed last May. In granting the plea for temporary injunction, Judge McKinley formally expressed the opinion that the statute was unconstitutional.

Addison Holt, a beneficial policyholder, was the complainant in the case.

FIRST WITNESS ON STAND FOR DEFENSE

"KING OF NEWSBOYS" TESTIFIES IN BECKER TRIAL.

Declares Gamblers Were in Conspiracy to Kill Rosenthal and "Frame Up" Becker for the Murder.

New York, Oct. 18.—"Jack Sullivan, king of newsboys" indicted with the four gunmen for the murder of Herman Rosenthal tried to unfold on the witness stand at today's session of Police Lieutenant Becker's trial, his version of an alleged conspiracy by gamblers to kill Rosenthal and "Frame-up" Becker for the murder. Through him the defense planned to prove its contention that Becker had nothing to do with the murder but was himself the victim of a conspiracy.

But much of Sullivan's story was untold. That part which Justice Goff admitted was based upon testimony already given by Rose, Webber, Vallejo and Schepps.

Schepps not only denied portions of their testimony but declared that after the murder Webber and Rose told him they were going to frame Becker and turn him over to the district attorney.

"They told Sullivan according to his testimony, that they would frame Becker, Waldo or the mayor," if necessary to save their own lives.

District Attorney Whitman, Becker's prosecutor was virtually forced on the stand as a witness for the defense immediately before Sullivan had testified. Mr. Whitman said he had made stipulations with Rose, Webber, Vallejo and Schepps, the state's chief witness against Becker before they agreed to turn state's evidence. The meat of these stipulations was not disclosed, but Mr. Whitman agreeing to produce them in court, swore that he had not promised the four immunity.

Former District Attorney Jerome and Police Commissioner Waldo, preceded Mr. Whitman, but Mr. Jerome was allowed to answer only one question.

SEARCH PACIFIC COAST FOR WITNESSES

McNamara's Accomplice Thought to be in California.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—Search for new witnesses in the dynamite conspiracy trial today was extended to the Pacific coast.

Government agents reported that at the time James B. McNamara was in Seattle, Wash., studying new ways of causing explosions and when an office building under construction there was blown up on August 31, 1910, another man, known as "Petersville" was in Seattle. Petersville, according to the man from whom he rented a room was some one other than McNamara, but he kept in his room clock, fuses and other bomb attachments similar to those used by the dynamiter. He is being traced on the theory that he was one of McNamara's accomplices who was indicted in Los Angeles county, Calif., but who never has been found.

FIRE DESTROYS BENEICIA ARSENAL

Four Million Dollars go up in Smoke When Government Supply Station Burns.

Beneicia, Calif., Oct. 18.—The Beneicia arsenal, the government's principal storehouse for army supplies on the Pacific coast, was destroyed tonight. The loss is estimated at between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. Spontaneous combustion or crossed electric wires is assigned as the origin of the fire.

Sixty thousand stands of small arms and twelve million rounds of ammunition were destroyed. Because of the explosions of the cartridges the work of fighting the fire was extremely hazardous.

The company of sixty men stationed at the arsenal, manned the fire-fighting equipment immediately after the flames were discovered. Despite the steady explosions of the huge quantities of ammunition, the troops approached near enough to the building to reach it with their streams of water.

Soon the fire was beyond control. The three story stone structure filled with inflammable material, made a blaze visible for miles.

The Beneicia arsenal was the main equipping station for both the Pacific and the Orient. The building was erected in 1859.

Col. Charles Ruggles in charge of the ordinance department of the western division commanded the soldiers that fought the fire.

It is positively stated that no one had been in the arsenal since after 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

It was 4:30 o'clock this afternoon when the keys were turned over to the guard in charge.

No powder or large shells were stored in the building.

CITIZENS DO NOT INTERFERE.
O'Fallon, Ill., Oct. 18.—Robbers, after blowing the safe in the post-office here early this morning, escaped with $700. Parts of the safe wrecked a porch 75 yards from the postoffice. Citizens of the town witnessed the robbery, but did not interfere with the robbers.

WILSON EXPLAINS TARIFF DOCTRINE

ADDRESSES ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Declines to Discuss Third Party While Roosevelt is Confined—Talks of the Trusts and Monopolies.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 18.—Wet weather campaigning was Governor Woodrow Wilson's experience today as he traveled through West Virginia and western Pennsylvania. Only at Pittsburg tonight did he speak indoors, but throughout the day the Democratic nominee faced a fabric of umbrellas underneath which stood a multitude of enthusiastic people. The nominee covered a series of subjects in his speeches. At Wheeling he was loudly applauded when he said he would not discuss the third party while Colonel Roosevelt was in the hospital. The governor was saying that there was a corner on prosperity in the country and that he had a "very definite notion as to how the whole population of the United States should have access to its own prosperity."

Discussion is Limited.
He began to discuss the trusts and monopolies then, but stopped short.

"I am a little hampered," he said, "in discussing this part of the question because I have denied myself the privilege at present of discussing anything that concerns the third party. As long as Mr. Roosevelt is confined to the hospital in Chicago I shall have nothing to say about the third party. But I want to say this about the Democratic party program. The thing that has created the trusts, that has created the monopoly is unregulated, unfair competition. If I can only bring it about that new-comers shall have a free field, then we can take care of these gentlemen in the trusts, because then the most intelligent competitor will get the market, and the little man can grow, instead of making himself big by the legislation of congress and by special favors from the government. We can do that by having federal laws, with statutes which shall make it criminal to do what these gentlemen did to build up their monopolies and which will see to it that the men who did commit the offense against fair competition have time to think it over in some building from which they will not for some time come out."

Would Jail Law Breakers.
"Nothing would stop this thing like a period of contemplation, nothing would stop it so clearly than to give these gentlemen time to realize what they have been doing, have not really thought it over, I want to give them the leisure and the seclusion to think it over. I am not afraid that it would not be stopped. I am not afraid that the penitentiaries will be crowded. Just as soon as the law takes hold of this thing and men are behind the law who want to injure nobody in particular but to administer justice to everyone then special favors will be withdrawn, fair competition will be set up and there will be another face upon affairs in America."

The governor and his party reached Pittsburg at 5:15 o'clock and went to a banquet of the Wilson Club of Allegheny county. A rally at Duquesne Garden followed, after which the governor left for New York.

Great Demonstration.

The wildest and most sustained demonstration that Governor Wilson has had in his campaign greeted him at Duquesne Garden. When he rose to speak there were great cheers, but the applause was almost continuous throughout the speech of 45 minutes.

The governor's address was a series of short sentences and epigrams which the enthusiastic crowd constantly punctuated with applause. Once the crowd rose as body in the middle of the speech and began a demonstration that lasted for several minutes. The governor talked mostly about the tariff and said that out of the "garden of tariff schedules" only the "weeds" would be eliminated, but that no legitimate enterprise would suffer.

Governor Wilson said in part:

Not for Free Trade.
"I welcome the opportunity of stating what I believe to be the well considered position of the Democratic party with regard to the tariff."

"The Democratic party does not propose free trade or anything approaching free trade. It proposes merely a reconsideration of the tariff schedules such as will adjust them to the actual business conditions and interests of the country. Every observant business man must have realized long ago that the tariff schedules were constructed in such a way that business was not upon a normal basis in the United States. They do not constitute a system of well considered protection. On the contrary, they embody innumerable cunningly devised and carefully concealed special favors and particular groups of capitalists and manufacturers have taken advantage of these special favors to build monopoly up in a way that is threatening and dangerous to every new and independent enterprise."

"It is obvious that the country demands, and will sooner or later obtain a thoroughly considered reconsideration of the tariff."

GREECE DECLARES WAR AGAINST OTTOMAN EMPIRE

Allied Ministers Have Left Constantinople and a State of War Exists With Turkey.

London, Oct. 18.—Turkey's endeavors to detach Greece from the confederation of Balkan states have failed.

HEAVY FIGHTING IS REPORTED

Greatest Struggle Will Be Made for Possession of Adrianople—Greek Sailors Eager To See Turkish Fleet Leave Its Moorings—Bulgarians Attack Turkish Forces.

Greece declared war against the Ottoman empire to day, all the allied ministers left Constantinople and the allied states notified the powers in a note detailing their complaints that a state of war with Turkey exists.

Reports of fighting, such as the capture of Pristina by the Serbians and of a heavy battle at Mustafa Pacha, probably are in advance of the real facts. There has been for some time an active censorship of military news in all the near Eastern capitals and little is known of the dispositions of the various forces. All reports of fighting therefore need to be received with a measure of caution, as it is not impossible they are spread abroad from interested motives.

The greatest struggle will be for possession of Adrianople, the capture of which by the Bulgarians would leave the road open to Constantinople.

A despatch received in London and vouched for by the Greek minister here, makes the extraordinary statement that Turkish army doctors have gone to Janina in the southern part of Albania, near the Grecian frontier, carry with them typhus and cholera microbes.

Makes War Declaration.

Athens, Oct. 18.—The foreign minister at the sitting of the chamber of deputies this afternoon announced that Greece had declared war against Turkey. He added that up to the last moment Turkey had made all kinds of efforts and held out all sorts of promises to have Greece break away from the Balkan confederation.

Premier Venizelos read to the deputies a message from King George in which his majesty stated that the sufferings of their oppressed brethren had forced the Balkan states to recourse to arms. The premier also read a telegram from Crown Prince Constantine reporting that the Greek army had entered Turkish territory.

When the premier had concluded theminister of war rose and announced the departure of the Greek fleet. He said it was the one great wish of the Greek sailors to see the Turkish fleet leave its moorings.

Amid cheering the president of the chamber asked permission of the deputies to send greetings to the legislative chambers of the allies now that "cannon are roaring in the name of civilization and Christianity is at war against barbarism."

Bulgarians Make Attack.
London, Oct. 18.—The Bulgarians attacked the Turkish forces between Kustenie and Dupitza, a short distance south of Sofia and captured important strongholds on Mount Ruff and Mount Teherascala, according to a despatch from Sofia to a news agency here.

A despatch to the Times from Constantinople says it is believed the Bulgarians in an unsuccessful attack on Mustafa Pasha on the night of Oct. 16, and retired on the noon of the 17th.

Another despatch to the same paper from Sofia report that the Turks have abandoned Mustafa Pasha.

GOOD RESOLUTIONS

Those that make for comfort, convenience and economy and are lived up to—such are the resolutions to install gas in the home, as a means for lighting, heating and cooking. Certainly no intelligent man or woman today would be without gas unless they were where it could not be secured. As a matter of fact, people in the country realize so fully its advantages that they have imitated it by installing acetylene plants, which are extremely costly. However, for the small sum of $1.25 per room, you can have gas in your home. Why not see us today about this matter?

CIRCUIT COURT CASES.

In the circuit court, Robert C. Curtis of Chicago has brought suit through Kirby, Wilson and Baldwin, against Martin R. Joyce for the specific performance of contract. It is set forth that a contract was entered into whereby Mr. Joyce agreed to exchange his brick store room at 145 South Main street and $17,500 in money with Mr. Curtis for a tract of 274 acres of land in Pike county and that later Mr. Joyce refused to carry out his part of the contract. The suit is brought to compel the performance of the contract. The premises on South Main street are now occupied by Herman Allen and Howard Underwood, who are also made defendants.

J. H. Cain & Sons have through their attorneys Kirby, Wilson & Baldwin, entered suit against George C. Latham on a creditors bill. Messrs. Cain recently procured a judgment against Latham for the sum of $122 and it is maintained that Latham has disposed of his store and transferred some property, and the suit is brought to compel payment of the judgment.

The case of John C. Chapman vs. the Arnold Elevator Company which was tried in a justice court has been appealed to the November term of the circuit court. The suit is for payment for work claimed to have been done for the company. J. O. Priest is the company's attorney.

BUSINESS MEN MAY ENLARGE WORK

ORGANIZATION INTO DEPARTMENTS PROPOSED BY SECRETARY FRITCHEY.

Plans Were Talked Over Friday by Directors Who Took Dinner Together—Crop Improvement Work May Come in for Share of Attention—Young Business Men Tell of City's Needs.

Friday evening a number of directors of the Jacksonville Business Men's association took dinner at the Dunlap and afterward listened to a report presented by Secretary Paul Fritchey of his recent trip to various conventions of Business association representatives. Mr. Fritchey also outlined a new plan of organization for the Jacksonville association and presented a number of matters of importance, all showing that the secretary is striving with earnestness to make the local association a power for the general upbuilding of Jacksonville. The excellent dinner was served in the hotel ordinary and the directors who attended were William Newman, Frank Byrns, M. F. Dunlap, J. J. Reeve, J. A. Ayers, Bernard Gause, W. J. Brady, U. G. Woodman and F. J. Andrews. After the various matters had been discussed the directors voted to approve Mr. Fritchey's plan for organization and it will be taken up later on and explained in detail.

Mr. Fritchey told of a visit to a canning factory at Edinburgh, Ind., and of correspondence he has had with a number of persons relative to establishing a factory here. He believes that this would be an excellent location for such a factory and that he will have something definite to report at any early date. The secretary read a letter from the secretary of the Duluth Chamber of Commerce showing how the work there is organized and making special reference to the work of the crop improvement bureau. A letter was read also from Bert Ball, secretary of the Crop Improvement committee on organization, was read seeking to aid in the upbuilding of lands.

What Jacksonville Needs.
When a meeting was held Thursday night for the organization of the young men of the city into a business association, Mr. Fritchey presented each with a card bearing several questions, among which was "What is Jacksonville most in need of?" The replies were as follows: Water, 7; industries, 3; public improvements, 1; more civic pride, 8; interurbans, 1; lighting, 2; co-operation, 5; good roads, 1; boosters, 1.

Lines of Organization.
Under the new organization of the association the president would be the central authority and there would be various departments under his direction and that of the managing secretary. A vice president will be at the head of each department and in time possibly each department will have its own secretary. The managing secretary will be more closely related to the booster's organization, that composed of young men, than to other departments. The various departments will be organized as follows: Industry and transportation, retail merchants, publicity, public affairs, rural affairs, finance and greater Jacksonville. There will be eighteen directors, including the president. The executive committee will include the president, six vice presidents, treasurer and managing secretary.

Crop Improvement Work.
The special function of the department of rural affairs would be in connection with the work of soil improvement. The crop improvement committee, an incorporated concern is offering to give $1,000 to each county where an organization is perfected and an agricultural expert is engaged to serve in an advisory capacity to farmers. In DeKalb county the farmers themselves are active in forming an organization and have engaged an expert at a cost of $3,000 a year for a period of ten years. Mr. Fritchey read a letter which gives some general information about the work which the crop improvement committee is seeking to encourage. The letters from Mr. Ball, secretary of the committee is in part as follows:

"In line with our recent conversation, I am sending you under separate cover a form of contract and a request for a constitution for your county farm bureau which may be a section of your club if you so deem best. These may be modified to meet local conditions but the general plan should be followed, as we believe the best results will be obtained in this way.

"We will put one thousand dollars the first year in your county if you will form a county farm bureau and raise a fund sufficient to employ a trained agriculturalist of business tact and judgment for a term of at least two years. This man must be satisfactory to the state agricultural college or the United States department of farm management or both. The government states that it will make this man their county agent with post office ranking privileges and will take over place in the fund the second year and thereafter.

"The size of your fund will depend upon how much you expect to pay your expert. To determine this we would suggest that if you have no one already in mind that you request your agricultural college to find you a man and ask them what you will have to pay him. It will depend upon the kind of a man available. The government thinks $2,700 a year is sufficient, but we are of the opinion that the fund should be from $3,000 to $5,000 per year, according to the nature of the work.

"Conditions vary in different counties, it is necessary that each county raise its fund according to the best judgment of the members of the local organization. This committee, however, suggests that it is not sufficient to obtain funds from governmental and taxation sources alone, but that as many persons as possible in the county should participate in the work, who shall contribute at least half of the local fund so raised for county development. In order to maintain the interest and get the best results, it is necessary that the business men, land owners, bankers and farmers of each county should be personally and financially interested in the plan.

A great many matters of importance were touched on last night by Mr. Fritchey and the discussion which followed was of a kind which indicates that the secretary may expect some helpful advice and support in the work he is undertaking and proposing.

vision of the tariff and the serious practical question now is, when and how shall it be brought about? It is practically out of the question that the majority of the next house of representatives; it is evident that those who stand pat on the tariff will not control the next senate; the forces of reform will be dominant in both houses. To be held at a standstill in such circumstances by a president entirely out of sympathy with congress will be to generate greater and greater restlessness, deeper and deeper discontent.

Conditions Not at Best.
"In spite of all the obstacles of the existing tariff system in spite of all the embarrassment of an inelastic currency, in spite of the uncertainties of politics, the commercial and industrial interests of the country are moving forward in an irresistible stream. The argument is put forth, therefore, to 'let well enough alone.' The argument would be very impressive if we really thought that the present conditions are well enough, but we know that they are not, that they constantly involve the influences of monopoly, of manipulation, of private control, and even if they were well enough it is not leaving them alone to elect Mr. Taft president, to hold a restless nation at a standstill for four years and exasperate the very forces which may

TRAINMEN HAVE QUEER EXPERIENCE

Burlington Engineers Notice Strange Appetition North of Concord Which Disappears When They Approach It.

Engineers and firemen on the midnight Burlington passenger trains, which pass through Concord on the main line, enroute to St. Louis have reported that they have seen a strange apparition just north of that station, on several occasions.

The last time that the trainmen reported seeing the apparition was Wednesday night. It is reported that the engineers and firemen, sometimes one and sometimes the other, have seen it several times in the last few weeks and that they described it as a man, wearing a black hat and walking down the tracks, directly in front of the engine. At one time, it is said, the train struck it and that the trainmen felt a slight jar at the impact, but when they stopped the train and made a search they could find nothing.

At another time the matter was reported at one of the stations and the section crew was sent to the scene but they were unable to find anything. It is also said that engineers on these trains have been changed, with the thought that possibly the man had an illusion, but the other men reported seeing it at different times.

Some have advanced the theory that it is possibly a lunatic who walks down the tracks and that he put a dummy under the train, but this theory hardly explains the matter as the crew of the passenger train could find nothing when they stopped their train, and the people in the vicinity of the place have seen no one around that acted strangely.

"THE ROSARY."
Seldom does an author portray such an important character as that of a Catholic priest, and have it meet with approval from the clergy. But this is just what has happened to Edward E. Rose, author of "The Rosary," which will be seen at the Grand this afternoon and night. In "The Rosary" Mr. Rose has drawn a character of Rev. Brian Kelly, a Catholic priest, who interferes in domestic troubles between man and wife, and eventually shows the unlimited amount of good that can be done by a priest, not of conventional stage character, but a real man, a big man of faith, strength and conviction.

TO ENTERTAIN CLUB.
The Junior Etude club will be entertained this afternoon at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Charles Ehlie in honor of her nieces, the Misses Gillingham of California, who are her guests.

LABOR EVANGELIST SPEAKS.

Rev. D. L. Schulte Addresses Gathering at Baptist Church Friday Evening.

Rev. D. L. Schulte of Pittsburg, Pa., a "labor evangelist" in the employ of the Baptist Home Missionary society, addressed a gathering at the First Baptist church Friday evening. Rev. Mr. Schulte had been attending the convention of the State Baptist association in Quincy and is just beginning a tour of Illinois in the interests of the work. He gave a very able address, telling of the work of the Home Missionary society of the country and his aim is to bring the church in closer touch and sympathy with the laboring man. He was heard with attention Friday evening and his audience was deeply impressed with his message. Rev. Mr. Schulte leaves today for Springfield, where he will lecture.

AFTER THE MINISTERS
The Quincy Whig, in reporting the Baptist convention had the following to say about George Beekman of this county:

"One of the features of yesterday's meeting of the Illinois Baptist convention being held in this city was an address delivered last night by a layman, berating the clergymen of the Baptist churches. It was delivered by George Beekman, a prominent layman from Pisgah, Ill. He is highly esteemed for hard service in the interest of the church and his keen thrusts at the Baptist ministry were well received and frequently applauded by the large audience that heard him at the Vermont Street Baptist church last night.

"In a semi-humorous vein Mr. Beekman divided the preachers into three classes: 'The builders,' the 'setters' and the 'busters.' In the speaker's mind the 'setters' and 'busters' greatly exceeded the 'builders.'

ROOSEVELT TALKS OF FUTURE PLANS

poisoning or some other serious complication. The physicians thought that that he was getting well he said, but they had told him that there still remained the chance of a setback.

"Isn't it a curious thing," he said, "that a little shot" he placed his thumb near the tip of his finger to indicate how small a shot he meant—"can become infected and set the whole thing back?"

All Danger Not Past.
Then, he said, there was the possibility, the physicians had told him, the pleurisy or pneumonia might develop. Dr. Alexander Lambert, he said, had spoken of returning to New York today, but his associates asked him to remain, because they felt that all danger was not past. The colonel said that he felt no pain at present. He placed his right forefinger carefully on his breast to indicate the position of the wound and said that while he still had an occasional twinge to remind him of it, he was at ease. He talked and moved his arms freely although he was careful not to move his body. He punctuated his remarks with gestures but they were not the same vigorous gestures which he is wont to make. He waved his hand or thrust forward a finger with a quick dart instead of bringing down a clenched fist upon an open palm with a thump. The colonel still had trouble with his broken rib. His only apparent worry was lest the rib would not knit quickly enough to permit him to make a few speeches in the closing days of the campaign. If he took a deep breath he explained the edges parted, and the beginning which nature had made at her task of knitting them together would be all for naught.

"If I can get that rib to knit so that the edges hold," he said, "and it does not pain me to take a deep breath I hope to make some speeches week after next."

As his thoughts turned to the campaign, Colonel Roosevelt's manner changed. Although he had been cautioned not to forget that he was far from well and to guard against excitement, his face flushed and his gestures became more vigorous.

"They'll have to be short speeches at first, I suppose, but I'll make some good ones," he said. The colonel paused for a moment. He set his jaw hard and clenched his fist for the only time during the interview.

Scores Gov. Marshall.
"I ask no quarter," he said, "it is amusing to see the predicament of Governor Marshall," he added with a laugh. "The governor has been making his campaign on the assertion that I was not at San Juan Hill. This may stagger him; but in a week he will discover that I was not shot at all, and that anyway it was a bird shot and that it hit another man instead of me and finally that I was in Oshkosh that night."

Colonel Roosevelt expected, he says, to bring the campaign to a close just as though he had not been shot. He hoped to be able to put in a week of campaigning, and "say a few things," although he might be unable to travel as he had been doing. Making sometimes a dozen speeches in a day. His physicians told him that probably he would leave for Oyster Bay on Monday or Tuesday and the colonel at once made up his mind that he would go, but admitted "it may be impossible."

Despite his confidence that he will be back in the fight week after next the colonel has not received assurances that he will be able to make a single speech. A week of absolute rest at Sagamore Hill comes first, and it will depend upon his progress then what comes next.

Running Mate Calls.
Colonel Roosevelt spoke of the visit of Governor Hiram Johnson, his running mate who spent a short time with him this afternoon. He said there was little to say about the conversation and they had not talked much politics.

"We discussed the social and industrial planks of the platform," he said, "and talked over the political situation, but for the most part we talked of other things, not politics."

The effect of Colonel Roosevelt's exertion was beginning to show itself, at the outset of the talk. He bore himself in a way which gave no indication of his condition except that he sat quietly in his chair instead of moving about in his customary energetic way. But finally he spoke in lower tones in which there was a trace of weariness and ended the interview with a "good bye."

May Return Home Monday.
The passage of the day brought an end to the period within which symptoms of blood poisoning were to be looked for.

Col. Roosevelt's physicians said that while they believed that the colonel's desire to leave for New York on Monday could be gratified it would be necessary for him to be extremely careful to avoid over-fatigue during the journey. They told him at the outset that if he returned home so soon he must keep strictly to himself during the trip, and that there must be no attempts at speech-making while he was travelling.

The former president's fourth day in Mercy hospital was another period of uninterrupted calm for him. Mrs. Roosevelt still maintained her rigid supervision over visitors, although her husband saw a few more than he has since her arrival from New York.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Mrs. Nicholas Longworth and Miss Ethel Roosevelt spent part of the day with their father.

HEARING POSTPONED.
In the county court Friday Judge Brockhouse continued the hearing on the proposed Prairie street paving until November 4th. A number of residents object to the pavement on the ground that the improvement is too costly.

FOR STATE TREASURER.

State Journal: In Illinois the man who sits on the lid of the state's strong box is about the most important public man in the state. The people think a dog that makes friends with passing strangers is no good as a watch dog. That is one of the reasons they take so gladly to Andrew Russell of Jacksonville for state treasurer. He has that element of caution and wariness which makes him a first-class man to handle the public cash.

He is of Scotch-Irish parentage. His father came from Scotland to Morgan county in the early thirties, and his mother was one of the sturdy pioneers. Mr. Russell has held various places of trust and responsibility, and one in which he has taken most pride and interest was trustee of Illinois college, the institution in which he had his education. He served five terms as treasurer of Jacksonville, and six years as president of the state board of pardons, was elected state treasurer in 1908 and filled the office with entire satisfaction to the people.

He is a true Republican and a progressive man, and was nominated for the office of state treasurer last April by a majority of 89,775 over three other strong men. He is presented to the voters with entire confidence in his fitness and there ought not to be the slightest doubt about his election.

Louis Nethersole, manager for Miss Margaret Anglin in the city making arrangements for her appearance here at the Grand Monday night, Oct. 28. Manager Hunt has certainly been fortunate in securing an attraction of such importance as Miss Anglin is today one of the best known American actresses in comedy work. She will give "Green Stockings" here, the very laughable comedy in which she has been starring for two years. The company is now playing at the Garrick theater in Chicago and will close there tonight. The coming week four Indiana cities and two in Illinois will be made and on the Monday following Jacksonville will have the pleasure of seeing this charming actress.

Mr. Nethersole by the way is not unknown in theatrical work himself, as his name has been in more than one cast and he has served as manager for his sister, Olga Nethersole, famous as an emotional actress.

DISCUSSES LACK OF STOCK LAWS

Dr. James A. Egan Talks of Importation of Cattle Into Illinois—Shows Attempts of Governor Deneen to Secure Passage of Legislation on the Subject.

The importation of cattle afflicted with tuberculosis into Illinois is discussed in the recent bulletin of the state board of health by Dr. James A. Egan, its editor, who points out the lack of power of the state board of live stock commissioners under existing laws, and shows the attempts made by Governor Deneen to secure the passage of bills correcting the defects in the laws.

Dr. Egan advocates greater powers for the live stock commission, so that Illinois will no longer be classed as the dumping ground of tuberculous cattle.

Greater Power Advocated.

His article reads as follows:

"The majority—indeed, nearly all states have laws designed to prevent the importation of tuberculous cattle. The notable exceptions in the middle west are Ohio and Illinois.

"Governor Deneen devoted much attention to the subject in his biennial message to the Forty-sixth general assembly in 1909 and recommended that measures correcting the defects in the laws of Illinois be passed by the general assembly. Bills on this line were introduced, but none became a law.

"Again, in 1911, Governor Deneen dwelt on the matter in his message to the forty-seventh general assembly, and recommended 'that laws be enacted preventing the importation of tuberculous cattle into the state.' Continuing Deneen said:

"Thirty-three states have laws bearing on this subject preventing the importation of cattle afflicted with tuberculosis. Illinois is without such protection and has been made the dumping ground from other states."

Bills Fail to Pass.

"As in 1909, bills embodying the recommendations of Governor Deneen were introduced, but also failed of passage. House bill No. 549, which made it unlawful for any railroad company, or other corporation or persons to ship, or bring into the state of Illinois any dairy or breeding animal of the cattle kind, unless accompanied by a certificate issued under the authority of the state or foreign country from which the animal is shipped or brought, to the effect that 'said dairy or breeding animal is free from all contagious and infectious diseases including tuberculosis,' passed the house of representatives, but failed in the senate.

"At this session the general assembly enacted a law making it illegal for any municipality, or county to require that the tuberculin test be applied to dairy animals as a means of measure of regulating and purifying the milk, cream and dairy products of said animal.

"While tuberculosis in cattle is a commercial proposition rather than a public health matter, and while the vast majority of cases of human consumption are due to infection from the sputum of the consumptive, it is an established fact that the continuous use of milk from tuberculous cows passing bacilli through their udders, may be the cause of the small per cent of the cases of tuberculosis in children. For this reason if for no other, the state board of health would advise the enactment of a law giving the live stock commissioners power to condemn tuberculous cattle found in the state—with ample facilities for carrying out the provisions of the law—and to prevent the entry of diseased cattle from other states.

Advocate Use of Tuberculin.

"We advocate the intelligent use of tuberculin," to quote from Governor Deneen's message—and this calls for its application by a skilled veterinarian, at the proper time, and the proper place and under proper conditions. But as stated by the London Lancet, in approving of our position on the administration of tuberculin, "it would be unwise to rely on this test alone," when attempting to fix upon the "dangerously tuberculous cow." The test is too easily negated by the unscrupulous dairyman or shipper—as also by the incompetent or careless veterinarian—and even though intelligently used, it fails in many instances to disclose the presence of tuberculosis in a cow having a generalized infection and passing tubercle bacilli in her milk.

"In our opinion, the law should provide not only for the tuberculin test when necessary, but also for a physical examination by a thoroughly qualified veterinarian working under state supervision."

HEADACHE—IT'S YOUR LIVER

Too Many People Take Headache Powders When a Liver Tonic is Needed.

Try Olive Tablets—the Substitute for Calomel.

Anyone who takes Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets the moment he suspects his liver or bowels, will never have headache.

There is no necessity, when you take Olive Tablets, of following them up with nasty, sickening, griping salts or castor oil, as you should after taking calomel.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel or any other metallic drug; they are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, sugar-coated, easy to take, and never gripe or cause weakness.

Thousands of people take one every night at bedtime just to prevent disorder of the liver, constipation, bad breath, pimples, headache, etc.

Dr. Edwards, calomel's old enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with liver and bowel troubles.

Try them for a week. Take one on retiring nightly.

"Every Little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own." 10c and 25c per box.

Eat Meat Just as Often

In spite of soaring prices, Americans like meat too well to do without it altogether. And when you can make one pound go as far as two, and have dishes equally nourishing and even more appetizing, you can have meat as often as you like. The handy 5c and 10c packages of are first aid to the housewife who is trying to keep down expenses without lowering her standard of living. It is the heartiest of all wheat foods, and with enough meat, or cheese or tomatoes to give the flavor you like best, it makes dozens of dishes you will be glad to add to your regular bill of fare.

Here are two recipes that ought to be tried right soon. These dishes are meat, potatoes and vegetable all in one—a full meal in themselves.

Hamburger Steak and Spaghetti

Let simmer together for thirty minutes, half pound hamburger steak, half can tomatoes and half an onion cut fine.

While this is being done, boil, without breaking sticks, and drain a five-cent package of Foulde's Spaghetti as directed in the package.

To the hamburger steak, tomatoes, etc., add half pound cheese cut fine or grated, half tablespoon of butter and allow to simmer fifteen minutes longer, then add spaghetti or arrange spaghetti around the edge of a warmed meat platter and pour hamburger steak, tomatoes, etc., in center.

Chipped Beef with Macaroni

Use one five-cent package of Foulde's Macaroni and one-fourth pound of water-sliced dried beef for three or four persons.

Without breaking the sticks, boil and drain the macaroni as directed in the package.

Shred the dried beef finely and bring to boil in two cups of rich milk; thicken with flour or corn starch stirred up in a little cold water, remove from the fire and stir in one well-beaten egg. Put the macaroni in a serving dish, pour the cream mixture over it and sprinkle paprika liberally on top.

These recipes are from The Americanized Macaroni and Spaghetti Cook Book which contains fifty more—some simple, others elaborate enough for any occasion, all inexpensive. You owe it to your family and your purse to learn how to use Foulde's to the best advantage. Send for the Cook Book. It's free.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

WAR CONDITIONS EFFECT MARKET

Chance of Russia's Entanglement With Turkey Holds Market Steady.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Wheat traders fought shy of the selling side today deterred by the readiness with which offerings were observed and by the chance of Russia becoming entangled with Turkey. As a result the market closed steady 1/4 to 1/2 to 3/4 over last night. The outcome for corn was again 1/4 to 1/2 to 3/4; oats finished 1/4 to 1/2 up, and provisions varying from 1/4 decline to a rise of 2 1/2c.

Higher prices for wheat came about notwithstanding that receipts the northwest continued heavy and that shipments could only be made at a rapidly shrinking difference. The bulls ignored also reports that Russia kept loading at reduce rates. Export sales in Chicago and Kansas City and the Atlantic seaboard formed more than an offset.

December ranged from 91 1/2 to 92 1/2 with last sales 1/2 to 3/4 net higher at 92 1/2 to 92 3/4.

Better call for the west limited sales from the country helped to an upturn in corn. Threatened wet weather helped the advance. December ranged between 53 1/2 to 53 3/4, in the northwest continued heavy and 53 1/2 to 53 3/4.

Expected increase of arrivals prevented oats from showing more than moderate sympathy for the advance made by other grain. Upper and lower levels for December were 32 1/2 to 32 3/4, with the close 1/4 to 1/2 up at 32 3/4.

Despite a great deal of realizing on the part of holders the provision market averaged higher most of the day. At the close prices were unchanged except for 10c decline in October pork.

California Woman Seriously Alarmed
"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. For sale by all dealers.

HAS ALEXANDER FOUND THE SAME?
The Answer is Found in the Straightforward Statement of an Alexander Resident.

We have been reading week after week in the local press of Jacksonville citizens who have been rid of distressing kidney and bladder troubles by Doan's Kidney Pills, and we have often wondered whether the same high opinion of this medicine is to be found in our neighboring towns. This frank and earnest statement by a well-known and respected resident of Alexander will set this doubt at rest:

John William Anlauf, farmer, Alexander, Ill., says: "About two years ago I took several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and will say that they did me more good than all the doctors I had experimented with. I have been bothered very little with my back since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The State Anti-Tuberculosis meeting will be held today and this evening a session of the state conference of charities will be held, after which the visitors will be entertained at a reception, given by Mrs. Deane at the executive mansion. At the meeting of the charities conference to be held at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon, Paul U. Kellogg of the Russell Sage Foundation, New York city, will speak on the "Social and Sanitary Surveys," Mr. Kellogg is managing editor of "The Survey Magazine" and it was under his direction that the Pittsburgh survey was completed several years ago. In his address Mr. Kellogg will explain what the survey is, how it is carried out, what it may accomplish, why it is that the survey is essential in every city if civic improvement is to be carried out effectively and intelligently.

FACE DISGRACEFUL WITH RASH

Large Scabs Would Form, Fester and Break, Itching and Burning, Kept from Sleeping, Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

St. Louis, Mo., D. C.—"My trouble of skin disease started merely as a rash on my face and neck, but it grew and kept getting worse until large scabs would form, fester and break. This was just on the one side of my face, but it soon scattered to the other side. I suffered a great deal especially at night on account of its itching and burning. I would scratch it and of course that irritated it very much. This rash was on my face for about two years sometimes breaking out lots worse and forming larger sores. It kept me from sleeping day or night for a couple of months. My face looked disgraceful, and I was almost ashamed to be seen by my friends."

"A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. I would bathe my face with hot water and a lot of Cuticura Soap, then I would put on the Cuticura Ointment. In less than two days' time, the soreness and inflammation had almost entirely disappeared, and in four weeks' time you could not see any of the rash. Now my face is without a spot of any kind. I also use them for my scalp and hair. They cured me completely." (Signed) Miss Pansy Hutcheson, Feb. 6, 1912.

FOURTEEN STUDENTS AWARDED DIPLOMAS

Annual Graduating Exercises of Brown's Business College Held at Grace Church—Dr. Driver Gives Address.

The annual graduating exercises of Brown's Business college were held Friday evening at Grace M. E. church, when a class of fourteen were awarded diplomas. There are twenty-one graduates in the class, but some were absent on account of sickness and others were not able to attend. This was the second graduation exercises held by the school, the first class of thirty-six members, being given their diplomas in February at the time of the anniversary celebration.

The auditorium of the church was well filled with friends of the graduates and the exercises were opened with an organ selection, "Marche Aux Flambeaux," by Guilman, played by J. Philip Read. This was followed by a stenotype demonstration by Miss Virginia Carter of Brown's West End School of St. Louis, Mo., after which Superintendent H. E. Read introduced President G. W. Brown, who took charge of the exercises.

Mr. Brown introduced Dr. John Merritt Driver, formerly pastor of the People's church of Chicago, as the speaker of the evening and he gave a masterly address on "America Facing the Far East." Dr. Driver said that he had been working on this lecture for twenty-five years and his address showed that he was well acquainted with the subject. He attempted to show that America is pushing westward and that England is pushing eastward into the Orient for the civilization and enlightenment of these people and that in the course of time the two countries would meet and join hands in the work. He was listened to with interest by the large audience and at a number of times he interspersed his lecture with humor.

The presentation of diplomas by Mr. Brown followed and Mr. Read played the processional march from "Queen of Sheba" by Gounod.

The class roll follows:
Combined course—Rhea Brennan, Virden, Ill.; Pearl M. Piper, city; Carl C. Heaton, Chenoweth, N. D.; Myrtle M. Hill, Stonington, Ill.; Harold C. Buescher, Canton, Ill.; J. Russell Hollingsworth, Palmyra, Ill.
Bookkeeping course—Albert L. Holmes, Prentice, Ill.; J. Clark Rothwell, city.

Bookkeeping course, evening school—William C. Bruene, city.
Shorthand course—Dora Conlee, city; Mary Conlee, city; Ethel Weber, St. Louis, Mo.; Louise Meier, Bluffs, Ill.; Lora E. Hahn, Brown's Home Study school, Peoria; Leoti Clampt, Mexico, Mo.; Carmen Sisson, city; Fern S. Haigh, city; Daisy P. Davis, St. Louis; Dorothy Westover, city; Katherine Hardin, 1018 W. COLONEL WILLIAM J. WYATT DIES

VETERAN OF TWO WARS PASSES AWAY IN FRANKLIN.

Enlisted in First Regiment Ever Organized in Illinois For Any National War—Spent Practically Entire Life in Morgan County—Survived by Wife and One Son.

Colonel William J. Wyatt, one of the oldest, if not the oldest, native born residents of Morgan county and a veteran of two wars, passed away at his home in Franklin Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at the age of 87 years. Colonel Wyatt had been in failing health all summer but until about a week ago was able to be up and around. At that time, however, he was taken to his bed and gradually weakened until the end, and death is attributed to paralysis of the neck and throat and ailments incident to old age.

William J. Wyatt was born on a farm five miles southeast of this city October 28, 1825, and was a son of John and Rebecca Wyatt, who came to Illinois from Missouri. Mr. Wyatt was a farmer and stock raiser and an old line Democrat, having served two terms in the Illinois state legislature when the state capital was located at Vandalia. He held a commission as lieutenant during the Black Hawk war and died January 6, 1849. His wife passed away in August, 1866.

Colonel Wyatt, who spent practically his entire life in this county, obtained his education in the subscription schools of the county, but was compelled to remain at home and manage his father's farm, as he was away from home a great deal of the time looking after his stock interests. On October 29, 1848, Colonel Wyatt was married to Mrs. Eliza A. Williams, who died February 12, 1882. The colonel was also preceded in death by a son and a daughter. He was married a second time to Nellie Dodd of Waverly, a daughter of Elijah Dodd, who with one son, George H. Wyatt of this county, survive. Colonel Wyatt was a member of Hicks lodge No. 93, of Waverly, and on April 8, 1853, he became a charter member of Franklin lodge No. 124, I. O. O. F., and was also a member of Hicks Encampment No. 9 of this city. The deceased was instrumental in securing a charter for a Rebekah lodge at Franklin and on several occasions he served as a representative to the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of the state. He was also actively interested in assisting to promote several public service enterprises, among them being the Jacksonville, Louisville & St. Louis railroad, which was built mainly by M. P. Ayers, now deceased. Mr. Wyatt secured a vote for the issue of bonds along the route for the construction of this road. He was a member of the Methodist church, and WYATT.

Colonel Wyatt had a record for war service that is equalled by few in this community. Under Governor Ford, in 1845-46 he served in the state militia which was detailed to keep peace among the Mormons and anti-Mormon element in Carthage, serving as a first lieutenant of a mounted infantry and remaining in winter quarters in that city.

With the consent of his father he left home on March 14, 1846 and on the thirtieth of the following May he enlisted in Company G of the regiment commanded by Colonel John J. Hardin, for service in the Mexican War. This regiment enjoyed the distinction of being the first of any kind ever organized in Illinois for a national war. Mr. Wyatt was elected captain of his company and early in June the regiment was mustered in at Alton. The destination of the regiment was thought to be Chihuahua, but they were ordered to Monclovia and after five weeks went to Parras, where General John B. Wool, in command of that division of the army, received orders from General Taylor to march on to Buena Vista Pass and meet the Mexican army under Santa Anna. At this historic battle, in which the Americans overcame overwhelming odds, Col. Wyatt and his company took an important part. They were in the right wing of the American troops and supported Captain Washington's battery to the pass, the key to the battle ground, and although the Americans' loss in killed and wounded was heavy, not a man under Colonel Wyatt was lost. In the number of killed eleven commissioned officers of the American army, four of whom were colonels, among them Colonel Hardin, Colonel Wyatt, who was an intimate friend, in company with his orderly sergeant and other officers, the lifeless remains of the battle ground and the body first found resting place a Mexican soil, but when the service was over the remains were brought to this city and buried in the Jacksonville cemetery.

In 1847 Colonel Wyatt was honorably discharged at Camargo, Mexico, and returned to this county, making the trip by way of the Gulf of Mexico and New Orleans. He engaged in the cattle business with his father, but when the Civil war broke out he was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the 101st regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry by Governor Yates. This regiment was in command of Colonel Fox and when the men arrived at Cairo, Ill., Colonel Wyatt became ill, but he remained with his command. He was taken a prisoner by the Confederates at Holly Springs, Miss., while ill there and was taken to Benton Barracks with a number of paroled prisoners and placed in charge of them. On account of physical disability he was honorably discharged from the service in May, 1863.

Colonel Wyatt was ill for some time after returning home, but as soon as his health permitted he resumed the business of farmer and stock raiser and continued for a number of years. Of late years, however he has been too feeble to engage in active farming and has been residing in Franklin.

Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

Montgomery & Deppe cordially invite you to attend the demonstration of the "La Rue" front laced corset—week commencing October, 21st.

All the new models will be shown by Miss McLean.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Friday evening Misses Stella and Leila Barryman entertained at their home on East College street a company at a miscellaneous rush in honor of Miss Hazel Coverly, who is to marry Floyd Butterfield, Oct. 20. The offerings created a great deal of merriment and at the same time many were handsome and many very useful. The evening was most happily spent by all present and nice refreshments added to the pleasure of the occasion.

Miss Vivian Strawn was given a very pleasant surprise party Friday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Strawn in Alexander, the occasion being her 14th birthday. About twenty-five guests were present and the evening was very pleasantly spent with various games. During the hours delicious refreshments were served and Miss Strawn was the recipient of a number of nice presents.

William Freitag and his nephew, Edward Coyle, gave a dance Thursday night at the home of the former's father, William Freitag, who resides six miles north of the city. There were nearly one hundred young people present and dancing was the amusement of the evening. The guests included friends from Jacksonville, Ashland, Prentice and Virginia and all made a trip in automobiles. Red and white roses were used in the decoration. In the dining room and red roses and chrysanthemums were tastefully arranged in the other rooms. O' Spaulding acted as floor manager and music was furnished by Messrs. Barber, Tiff and Metcalf. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. A fine oyster supper with all the trimmings was served, and in every way the dance was the most enjoyable ever held at the hospitable Freitag home.

Miss Ethlyn Andrews and Miss Amy Pires were hostesses at a handkerchief shower given at the home of the latter's father, John Pires, 569 Sandusky street, in honor of Miss Myrtle Denney, who is to wed next Monday night. The decorations consisted of autumn foliage and games and music afforded the diversions of the evening.
